

Teaching and Learning Committee Remit

The remit of this committee includes the monitoring and evaluation of the teaching and learning provision within school. The committee will review and monitor the Curriculum Policy and any other relevant policy (e.g. Assessment Policy, Policy on Sex Education, Collective Worship and Religious Education) as determined by the governing body and make recommendations to the full governing body for discussion and ratification.

In collaboration with members of staff, to provide information about how the curriculum is taught, evaluated and resourced.

To monitor and evaluate

- the quality of the curriculum in securing high standards of achievement
- the quality of teaching
- the impact of continuing professional development on improving staff performance

To receive reports from individual governors responsible for specific areas, where appropriate, e.g. numeracy, literacy, SEN etc.

To assist in the development of, monitor and review of the school self-evaluation report and to help identify areas for the school development / improvement plan and ensure that the governing body receives regular progress reports.

To review the policy and provision for sex education and make recommendations where necessary.

To assist the Headteacher in deciding which subject options should be taught having regard to resources (secondary schools).