To all parents/carers of students

Dear Parent/Carer

The Welsh Government have just announced that schools should take the first two days of next term as planning and preparation days. This will allow schools time consider the impact of the new Covid variant and plan school provision for January 2022. Therefore, the planned return date after the Christmas holiday period has now changed to:

Tuesday 4 January 2022

School-planning day – school closed to students.

Wednesday 5 January 2022

School-planning day – school closed to students.

Thursday 6 January 2022

Start of term for students

The Welsh Government has also announced that they recommend all students take part in Lateral Flow Device Testing three times per week in the week prior to their return and then continue the testing (three times a week) on return to school.

It continues to be essential that no student attends school with Covid-19 symptoms. If any student displays any symptoms parents/carers should book a PCR test.

Please have a safe and happy Christmas holiday.

Yours sincerely

Mr M Tucker
