

Additional Needs Testing and Support

During your child's time at the John Frost School, we may feel it necessary to carry out some tests to identify if there are any learning needs for us to address. We will always contact you in writing if we feel that the result of the testing requires us to put some support in place for your child.